INDEX TO VOLUME III

AUTHORS

ALMACK, JOHN C. A New Approach to the Health Curriculum. November, 108-115.

BAISDEN, LEO, Speaker. Effective Organization for the Functioning of the Elementary School Library. May, 232-241.

BROOKS, HAROLD BENNETT. Practical Suggestions for Teaching Children Who Have Difficulty in Reading. February, 165-170.

CLARK, WILLIS W. Some Ways in Which the Elementary School May Educate for Democracy. August, 50-54.

CLARK, WILLIS W. Vocabulary Difficulty of Selected Social Studies Books. May, 213-219.

DAVIS, PERCY R. Supervisory Problems of the Elementary Principal in the School of Tomorrow. November, 99-107.

DEAN, RAY B. Invalid Use of Standard Achievement Test Results for Judging the Effectiveness of Teaching. May, 229-231.

DICKSON, VIRGIL E. The Maladjusted Child. November, 83-88.

Editorial Comment and News Notes. August, 1-7; November, 65-73; February, 129-132; May, 191-199.

EDMANDS, RUTH. The New Educational Program. February, 153-157.

FARLEY, REBECCA, et al. Remedial Reading Instruction in Sixth Grade Groups. November, 116-122.

GOODYKOONTZ, BESS. Essentials of an Education in Contemporary Life at the Elementary School Level. August, 23-29.

HAMILTON, A. J. How Can We Train Teachers in the Newer Educational Ideals? May, 226-228.

HARDESTY, CECIL D. How Shall We Select Our Teachers? August, 55-57.

HEFFERNAN, HELEN. The Case for the Kindergarten in Public Education. August, 30-33.

HEFFERNAN, HELEN. Health Problems in Rural Schools. February, 147-152.

HEFFERNAN, HELEN. The Panel Technique of Group Discussions. November, 74-82.

HERRING, BLANCHE, et al. Remedial Reading Instruction in Sixth Grade Groups. November, 116-122.

HITT, ELEANOR, Chairman. Effective Organization for the Functioning of the Elementary School Library. May, 232-241.

HOCKETT, JOHN A., and NEELEY, DETA P. Selecting the Next Primer. May, 199-206.

LAMOREAUX, LILLIAN A., et al. Remedial Reading Instruction in Sixth Grade Groups. November, 116-122.

LEE, DORRIS MAY, and LEE, J. MURRAY. Keeping Informed. August, 58-64; February, 183-190; May, 242-249.

LEE, J. MURRAY, and LEE, DORRIS MAY. Keeping Informed. August, 58-64; February, 183-190; May, 242-249.

LOSSING, LAVERNA L. Creative Music. May, 207-212.

MELBO, IRVING R., and WATERMAN, IVAN R. Selection of Sixth Grade Reading Textbooks for California Adoption. February, 133-141.

NEELEY, DETA P., and HOCKETT, John A. Selecting the Next Primer. May, 200-207.

NEIDEFFER, R. T. Easy Reading for First and Second Grades. November, 123-128.

POTTER, GLADYS L. Certain Attitudes of Elementary Children Toward Motion Pictures. August, 8-22.

READ, HELEN SUE. Problems of the Supervisor of the Primary Grades in a Progressive Public School Situation. May, 220-225.

San Francisco State Teachers College, Committee on the Study of the Teaching of Reading. HILDA M. HOLMES, Instructor. Tomorrow's Teacher Views Today's Project. August, 38-44.

SEEDS, CORINNE A. An Interpretation of the Integrated Program in the Elementary School. November, 89-98.

SMITH, LUCIA W. How Little Children Use Music. August, 45-49.

STRONG, MRS. E. K., Chairman. Stenographic Report of Panel Discussion on Home and School Relationships. February, 177-182.

TROTT, FRED, et al. Remedial Reading Instruction in Sixth Grade Groups. November, 116-122.

UPJOHN, H. S. Reports to the Home on the Elementary School Level. February, 142-146.

WATERMAN, IVAN R., and MELBO, IRVING R. Selection of Sixth Grade Reading Textbooks for California Adoption. February, 133-141.

WHITE, NATALIE. Painting in the Schools as One More Means of Sharing Worth While Experiences. February, 171-176.

WULFING, GRETCHEN. Enriching the Rural School Curriculum. August, 34-37.

YAGEMAN, LYNDA. Should All First Grade Children Be Given a Reading Program? February, 158-164.

ARTICLES

Case for the Kindergarten in Public Education, The. Helen Heffernan. August, 30-33.

Certain Attitudes of Elementary Children Toward Motion Pictures. Gladys L. Potter. August, 8-22.

Creative Music. Laverna L. Lossing. May, 207-212.

Easy Reading for First and Second Grades. R. T. Neideffer. November, 123-128.

Editorial Comment and News Notes. August, 1-7; November, 65-73; February, 129-132; May, 191-199.

American Education Week. November, 72-73.

America's Rural Schools Are Library Poor. August, 3.

Conservation Week, March 3-9, 1935. February, 131.

California Congress of Parents and Teachers Meeting. May, 195.

California Congress of Parents and Teachers, Cooperative Program With. August, 2-3.

California Congress of Parents and Teachers, State Convention of. February, 130.

California Elementary School Principals' Association, Seventh Yearbook of the. May, 191.

California Teachers Association Committees on Educational Problems. May, 196-197.

Conference for Elementary School Principals, University of California, Berkeley. May, 192.

Conference of School Executives. May, 194-195.

Do We Know Children? November, 65-66.

Educational Materials From Commercial Sources. February, 130.

Elementary School Library, The. August, 6-7.

Elementary School Principals' Conference at University of California at Los Angeles. May, 192.

Elementary School Principals' Conferences. August, 7; February, 129.

Health Program for Elementary Schools, A. November, 69.

Library Problems in Elementary Schools. November, 66-67.

Long Time Planning in Early Childhood Education. May, 197-198.

Method of Graduation of Pupils From Elementary Schools in California Counties. November, 69-71.

Motion Picture Appreciation. August, 4-6; February, 129-130.

National Elementary Principal, The. May, 198-199.

National Publication Valuable in Public Relations Programs. August, 1-2.

New Service for Supervisors. November, 68.

New State Textbook Adoptions. November, 72.

Propaganda in Junior Newspapers. November, 71-72.

Public Schools Week. February, 132.

Science Guide for Elementary Schools. August, 3-4; February, 130-131.

Science Guide for Elementary Schools, The New. November, 67-68.

Service to Rural Teachers. February, 132.

Stanford Conference on Educational Administration of Interest to Elementary School Workers. May, 193-194.

Support of Rural School Supervision. February, 129.

Effective Organization for the Functioning of the Elementary School Library. Eleanor Hitt, Chairman. Leo Baisden, Speaker. May, 232-241.

Enriching the Rural School Curriculum. Gretchen Wulfing. August, 34-37.

Essentials of an Education in Contemporary Life at the Elementary School Level. Bess Goodykoontz. August, 23-29.

Health Problems in Rural Schools. Helen Heffernan. February, 147-152.

How Can We Train Teachers in the Newer Educational Ideals? A. J. Hamilton. May, 226-228.

How Little Children Use Music. Lucia W. Smith. August, 45-49.

How Shall We Select Our Teachers? Cecil D. Hardesty. August, 55-57.

Interpretation of the Integrated Program in the Elementary School, An. Corinne A. Seeds. November, 89-98.

Invalid Use of Standard Achievement Test Results for Judging the Effectiveness of Teaching. Ray B. Dean. May, 229-231.

Keeping Informed. J. Murray Lee, and Dorris May Lee. August, 58-64; February, 183-190; May, 242-249.

Maladjusted Child, The. Virgil E. Dickson. November, 83-88.

New Approach to the Health Curriculum, A. John C. Almack. November, 108-115.

New Educational Program, The. Ruth Edmands. February, 153-157.

Painting in the Schools as One More Means of Sharing Worth While Experiences. Natalie White. February, 171-176.

Panel Discussion on Home and School Relationships, Stenographic Report of. Mrs. E. K. Strong, Chairman. February, 177-182.

Panel Technique of Group Discussions, The. Helen Heffernan. November, 74-82.

Practical Suggestions for Teaching Children Who Have Difficulty in Reading. Harold Bennett Brooks. February, 165-170.

Problems of the Supervisor of the Primary Grades in a Progressive Public School Situation. Helen Sue Read. May, 220-225.

Remedial Reading Instruction in Sixth Grade Groups. Lillian A. Lamoreaux; Rebecca Farley; Blanche Herring; and Fred Trott. November, 116-122.

Reports to the Home on the Elementary School Level. H. S. Upjohn. February, 142-146.

Selecting the Next Primer. John A. Hockett and Deta P. Neeley. May, 199-206.

Selection of Sixth Grade Reading Textbooks for California Adoption. Ivan R. Waterman and Irving R. Melbo. February, 133-141.

Should All First Grade Children Be Given a Reading Program? Lynda Yageman. February, 158-164.

Some Ways in Which the Elementary School May Educate for Democracy. Willis W. Clark. August, 50-54.

Supervisory Problems of the Elementary Principal in the School of Tomorrow. Percy R. Davis. November, 99-107.

Tomorrow's Teacher Views Today's Project. San Francisco State Teachers College, Committee on the Study of the Teaching of Reading. Hilda M. Holmes, Instructor. August, 38-44.

Vocabulary Difficulty of Selected Social Studies Books. Willis W. Clark. May, 213-219.

o

20435 5-35 3M